14 March 2010, the Fourth Sunday of Lent; Luke 15:1-3, 11b to end

Today's gospel tells the story of the lost son who came home

A man had two sons.
The younger son left home with his share of the family fortune

He spent all his money and ended up living with the pigs

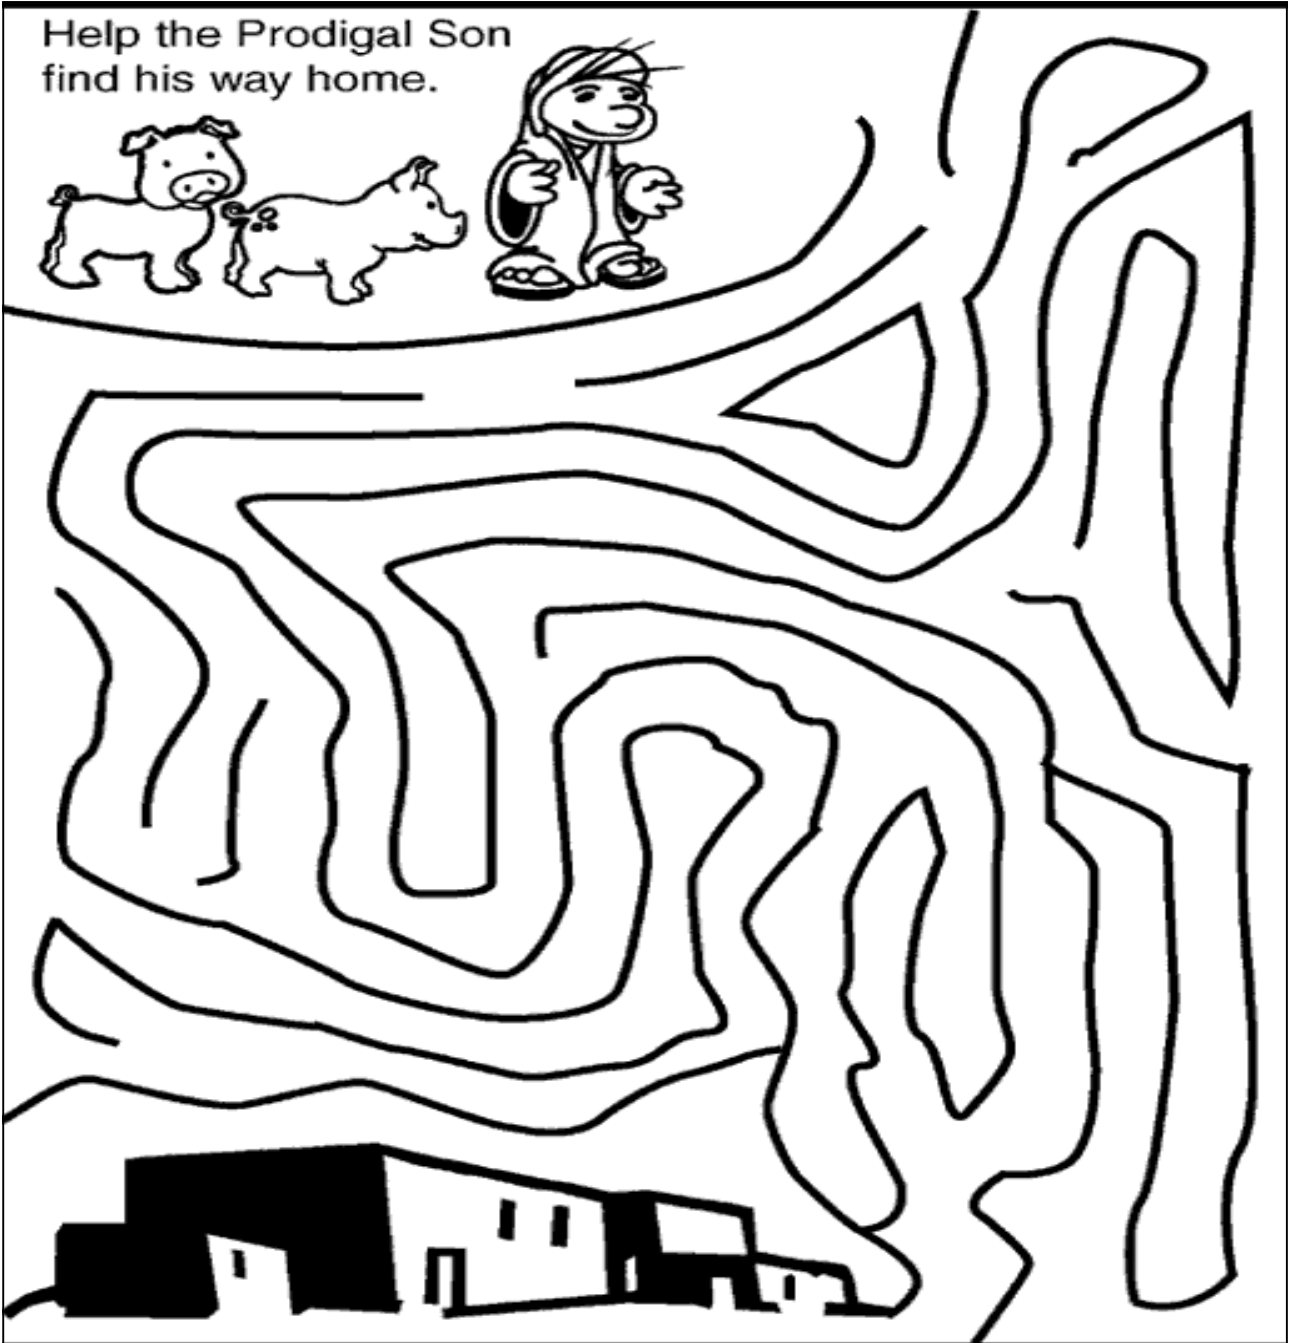

So he decided to go home and say sorry to his father. There was a big party, but his elder brother wasn't very happy about it

The father reminded the older brother just how much he loved him and asked him to join in the party too

Welcome
Home!

Help the Prodigal Son
find his way home.

I travel this world by sunlight, seeing the way
I should go;
I travel this world by moonlight, trusting its silvery glow.
I travel this world by starlight, trusting in heaven above;
I walk through this old world's darkness, safe in the light of God's love.
